FREAK DOUBLE PLAY

Chicago, August 23.—Kane's timely batting for Chicago defeated Boston, 3 to 2; to-day in the second game of the series. Reulbach was in great form, allowing bunched hits but tweice. A freak double play, executed by Graham and Herzog, in which the latter retired Evers and Kane at third, featured the fielding. Score:

Former Centre of Washington Central High School Will Train Players of Virginia College, [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, D. C., August 23.—Another Washington man will join the army of football coaches who are to take charge of college squads next month, and make the best of the revised rules just announced.

Vincent Stack, the former Central High School centre, who was generally conceded the pivotal position on the all-high school eleven, has accepted an offer to coach the Hampden-Sidney College, of Virginia, team.

The new ceach takes up his duties about the middle of next month, with a fairly good outlook. In addition to the championship of Western Virginia series, which includes games with William and Mary and Randolph-Macon, Hampden-Sidney will play Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Washington and Lee, and a number of smaller teams.

Stack will take to Hampden-Sidney the same system of play as used at Central High, with whatever alterations are made necessary by the changes in the ules.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

the fallure of Portsmouth to come across with the real coin. Secretary Gregory had to pay the salaries and debts of the Portsmouth club out of the league's pocket, and when that was finished there was very little for the secretary to do except audit bills. After that little spree there is little difficulty in seeing how the league could fall behind in umpires' salaries. The Portsmouth payments had milked the contingent fund until there was nothing doing.

At that, the officers of the league take it very unkindly that Umpire Pender should have refused to work last Saturday. Umpire Pender, it is said, knew the various and sundry viclasitudes of baseball, and he knows when a league is weakening and when it can make good. The rainy weather of the last two weeks put the league to the bad, and Pender might have kept his mouth shut and prayed for sunshine. He didn't do that, and the league officers are sore.

Jake Wells has given his word that he would be in Richmond either the latter part of this week or the first of next week. While he is taking a vacation from the wordes and pains of theatrical engagements, he will be able to pay a little attention to the league. From the way he has been paying attention to the league, it is safe to say that the Montreal franchise would be a blessing to the aforesaid Jake.

There seems to be something wrong with the Richmond management. Ed. Hooper was sold by Hank Ramsey to W. B. Bradley nearly a week ago. Yesterday word came that Hooper would not report, and Mr. Bradley purchased Zena Clayton to take Baker's place in the Colt line-up. Hooper was sold in good faith. The writer did not think a great deal of him because his batting record was poor, but he thought he would at least come for a tryout. Hooper paid no attention to the purchase, and merely sent word that he would not join the team.

According to the rules of organized the manager says, and if Hooper did not care to report for work with Rich.

Meet. Hamilton is expected to use the aeroplane of Dr. W. W. Christmas, of Washington, D. C. Hamilton will go to Washington Saturday to test the new machine.

> Ezekiel is an amateur, but he can hit occasionally, and the purchases have so far falled to hit at all.

> Incidentally, Revelle got his bumps again yesterday and let Roanoke trim the Colts by the score of 3 to 1. Shaughnessy's men seemed to have the best of it all the way through, and there was at no time any danger that Richmond would win.

The same old story that Richmond couldn't hit came to the fore with Roanoke, and Pritchard was the cause The V. P. I. boy handled the ball so that the Coits couldn't do a thing, and when the finish was, the real worth of him was apparent.

The writer got Ezekiel in wrong yesterday when he stated that the boy was taken out because he did not make a hit. The fact is, of which the writer was not cognizant, Eckiel received notice to come to Rosnoke too late to arrive with the team, and only got there in time to replace Shaw at short, stop.

Griffin made this statement to Herbert F. Miley, a local newspaper man, and the statement was made in the presence of Jim Farmer, manager of the Lynchburg Academy of Music, who recalls the statement to conform entirely with the printed account of the alleged sales of these players.

In addition to this, Griffin stated to Powell Chapman, of the staff of the News, and sports writer of that paper

Powell Chapman, of the stan of the News, and sports writer of that paper, that "Hooker ought to make good in the New York State League," adding that he had not yet concluded the Bussey deal, despite the fact that he stated in the presence of two persons that the deal had been consummated.

Rifle Team Has Fair Chance of Winning Prize in Class C.

this morning and crawled up to thirtieth place.

At 200 yards rapid fire in the afternoon they did not do so well, and fell off to thirty-second. This did not affect their standing in Class C, as there were only three teams leading them at the close of the 1,000-yard stage. These three are from the Naval Academy, Annapolis, which is only technically in Class C, and had been shooting up near the top of Class A, as it was expected to do. Kansas, which is now in fifteenth place, and seems to have a clinch on a prize in Class B, which will preclude it from winning in a lower class; and Arizona, the only team between Virginia and the bronze soldier of Marathon, which is the trophy in Class C. Arizona leads by fifty-six points. Virginia has now a fair chance of winning at least a prize in Class C, but it all lies in the grand shake-up to-morrow, the skirmish run.

In this event 100 points per man, one-third of the points in the whole match, may be made or lost, and surprising changes of position sometimes take place. All team members are praying for a little gun luck in the morning, and hope their friends at home will follow them with good wishes. Individual scores of the team of the day at two ranges, 1,000 yards slow fire, and 200 yards rapid fire. Sergeant Dile. 30; Sergeant Dougles, 81; First Lieutenant Waller, 78; Sergeant Tishae, 82; Second Lieutenant Cunningham, 79; Captain Ople, 81; Mugician Ogle, 85.

Danville, Va., August 23.—Danville won the second game of the series from Norfolk in a heartbreaking finish. It is 2.

The Bugs were unable to do a thing with Vance until the sixth, when two bases on balls, a two-bugger and an error netted three runs for the locals. Bussey pitched a good game, and was sight in the pinches. Both teams put up a good game in the field, despite the errors, and there was some brilliant fielding by both sides.

Danville's fourth run was scored on a long fly to left centre. Norfolk got two in the first as the result of an error and several hits. The score:
